MEMORANDUM FOR: Secretary, Joint Chiefs of Staff

SUBJECT: Establishment of a Joint Facility for Central Inter-Service Processing and Dissemination of Noncommunications Electronic Intercept Material

1. This acknowledges receipt of your memorandum of 20 January extending an invitation to this Agency to participate in the activities of the Joint Electronics Analysis Group (JEAG) in order to improve the analysis and dissemination of noncommunications electronics intercept material.

2. This Agency will be pleased to continue its assistance and collaboration with JEAG as in the past with ANEEG. In due course, recommendations may be made for improvement of the effectiveness of this activity in order to make better use of available personnel and provide improved collaboration between all activities having important collection capabilities which can contribute to this effort.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence ✓
Director, National Security Agency

Subject: Establishment of a Joint Facility for Central Inter-Service Processing and
Dissemination of Noncommunications
Electronic Intercept Material.

The Joint Chiefs of Staff have directed the establishment, in the Washington area, of the Joint Electronics Analysis Group (JEAG) as a part of an over-all plan to improve the analysis and dissemination of noncommunications electronic intercept material. The Joint Chiefs of Staff recognize the mutual benefits that can be derived from a full cooperative effort with other agencies having an interest in this field. Accordingly, the Joint Chiefs of Staff invite technical assistance and collaboration by your respective agencies in JEAG with such personnel as you deem appropriate. The director of this group will effect full collaboration with all interested agencies.

For the Joint Chiefs of Staff:

Edwin H. J. Carns
EDWIN H. J. CARNS,
Brigadier General, USA,
Secretary.
